

Li Chunlin (李春林)

Hefner Fellow Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, Singapore. Master in Public Administration Program, 2008/2009

Li Chunlin holds a Master's of Public Administration from the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, and earned a Bachelor's degree in Law Diplomacy from the China Foreign Affairs University, Beijing, and a Bachelor's degree in English from the Inner Mongolia University of Technology, China. Li Chunlin has worked for China's Ministry of Foreign Affairs as Section Chief, Third Secretary and Attache in the Consular Department, Beijing, and as Attache, Third Secretary and Vice Consul for the Chinese Embassy in the Philippines.

As Section Chief and Third Secretary for the Personnel Department at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, he trained consular officers and was responsible for drafting consular policies for Chinese embassies around the world. In 2005 he was honored with the "Outstanding Young People" award by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, China.

COMMENTS: "The Hefner China Fund and the MPA program at LKYSPP has allowed me to broaden my perspective of policymaking and management which will allow me to make useful contributions to class discussions from my local and overseas experience."

Contact Details

Address: Consular Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs
No. 2 Chao Yang Men
Nan Da Jie
Beijing, China 100701

Email: li_chunlin@mfa.gov.cn

Phone: 86.10.6596.4582

SUMMARY

- Name: Li Chunlin
- Education: M.P.A., Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, Singapore, 2009
B.A., Law Diplomacy, China Foreign Affairs University, Beijing, 2000; B.A. in English, Inner Mongolia University, Inner Mongolia, China, 1998
- Experience: Section Chief, Third Secretary, Attaché, Consular Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Beijing, China; Attaché, Third Secretary, Vice Consul of the Chinese Embassy in the Philippines.
- Hobbies: Music, History, Literature