

Xu Zhanguo (徐展国)

Hefner Fellow: Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, Singapore. Master of Public Administration Program, 2006/2007

Xu Zhanguo worked as the Assistant Director of the Coordination and Promotion Office in the Shanghai Environmental Protection Bureau, where he was responsible for drafting and implementing Shanghai's Three-year Environmental Action Plan.

Zhanguo earned his Master of Science degree in Environmental Science and Bachelor of Science in Environmental Monitoring and a secondary degree in computer software from the East China University of Science and Technology in Shanghai.

Zhanguo's objective is to obtain professional and systematic training in public administration and governance and integrate these skills into his knowledge of Environmental Science to achieve his long-term career goal as a senior decision maker.

COMMENTS: "I'm very happy to be a Hefner Fellow. I think the one-year MPA program is essential for me to become a senior decision maker and the experience of studying at the LKY SPP will be a treasure of my life."

Contact Details

Address: Shanghai Environmental Protection Bureau
No. 100, Dagu Road
200003 Shanghai
CHINA

Email: xuzg71@hotmail.com

Phone: 86.21.2311.5611

SUMMARY

- Name: Xu Zhanguo
- Education: M.P.A., Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, Singapore University, 2007
M.S., Environmental Science, East China University of Science and Technology, 2005
B.S., Environmental Monitoring, East Cina University of Science and Technology, 1994
- Experience: Assistant Director-Coordination & Promotion Office, Shanghai Environmental Protection Bureau
Secretary, Administrative Office, Shanghai Environmental Protection Bureau
- Hobbies: Music, swimming, and reading